New School Is Subject At Meeting

Presentation of Educational Needs Meets Public Approval

Three Hundred Persons Present Expected to 'Talk Up' Bond Issue

The need of proper school accommodations for the growing school population of the city was stressed at the get-together meeting held at the city hall Tuesday.

Over two hundred and fifty parents and citizens were present, enjoying a meeting that was both instructive and entertaining. The women of the Parent-Teachers Association showed their hand with a fine display of autumn flowers.

The meeting was presided over by Joseph L. Asbury of the Chamber of Commerce education committee. On the platform were school trustees J. O. Smith, Mrs. Cecily A. Allen and Mrs. Ruth Klemme. The speakers were Herbert J. Powell and Norman F. Marsh, members of the firm of Marsh, Powell and Smith, school architects of Los Angeles.

Geo. Hetzel, principal of the John Marshall Junior high school of Pasadena, talked on the advantages of the junior high school system as used in Pasadena. "This system," he said, "started in California and has spread all over the United States. During the past ten years wonderful progress has been made by school systems that have adopted the 6-4-4 idea and the advantages given to your own children at the Woodrow Wilson junior high are, I'm sure, appreciated by the parents who have taken the time to visit the school and study its workings."

In reply to a question regarding the separation of the seventh and eighth grades from the elementary schools, he gave as his opinion that the way the children were being taken care of was proven by the increased efficiency shown by pupils when entering the high school in Pasadena. The junior high school bridges a gap between the grade school and the high school, gave a greater choice of subjects to the pupils, furnished equipment that the elementary schools could not afford, offered tuition in certain trades that many boys and girls might be interested in, and started a molding process that helped the student to think about his life's work at a time better than a few years later. Mr. Hetzel answered a number of questions and cleared up a little misunderstanding regarding the workings of a junior high school in conjunction with an elementary school such as ours here in Sierra Madre.

J. O. Smith, chairman of the school board, covered the subject of the proposed bond issue. In his discourse he told of the many reasons for a new school plant. The number of rooms, he said, would be 16, together with an assembly hall, office and the other rooms required for school.

Local Women Hurt In Auto Collision Monday Morning

Three Sierra Madre women were injured to some extent Monday about 10 a.m. when the cars driven by Mrs. J. H. Robertson and Mrs. Myrtle P. (Rudolph) Hartman collided at the intersection of Lima and W. Highland.

According to the statement made by Chief Gordon G. McMillan, the bumper and left wheel of the Oakland sedan being driven south on Lima by Mrs. Robertson struck the left rear wheel and fender of the Overland sedan, belonging to F. H. Hartman, but being driven west on Highland by Mrs. Myrtle Hartman.

The result was that the Hartman car was turned completely around facing north and turned over on its side. Mrs. F. H. Hartman and her guest from Michigan, Mrs. Molly Rutherford, who were riding in the rear seat of the Overland car, suffered cuts and bruises of a painful but not serious nature. Mrs. Robertson and Mrs. Myrtle Hartman escaped with slight bruises and cuts, and nervous shock.

The Hartman car was quite badly damaged but the Robertson car escaped with very little damage. It is understood that no insurance was carried on either car to cover the accident.

Missionary From India Will Speak At Bethany Church

Mrs. E. G. Eaton, founder and superintendent of the Heart of India Mission Band, will be the speaker at the Christian Endeavor meeting in Bethany Church next Sunday evening at 6:30. Mrs. Eaton has just returned from Bangalore with a fresh message and all young people of the community are cordially invited to come and hear her.

Mrs. Eaton is well known to Sierra Madre audiences, having spoken here many times in past years. Her work is among the children of India, and the poorest of the outcast class, for whom she has orphanages and shelter-

Thayers to Return for Holidays

December a Busy Month for Sierra Madre's Famous Baritone

Donald Thayer, famous American baritone, is continuing his successes in the east, and December is scheduled to be a busy month for him. He is giving a concert at the new Roerich Auditorium on the evening of December 2nd; Boston recital at Jordan Hall, Sunday afternoon, December 15, and will be the soloist at the Biltmore Morning Musicale, Friday morning, December 20. This will mark the third re-engagement for Mr. Thayer for the Biltmore series of concerts in New York City.

Within a few hours of his appearance at the Biltmore, Mr. and Mrs. Thayer and the children will leave New York to spend Christmas at their ranch home in Sierra Madre, where Mr. Thayer will take a short vacation before filling engagements in the Middle West, and concerts on the Pacific Coast in March and April under the direction of L. E. Behymer. Mr. and Mrs. Thayer will arrive home on the "Chief" Dec. 24th.

Roberts Enlarges Grocery Department And Add Manager

Roberts' Market on West Central is putting in considerable new shelving to take care of the enlarged stock of groceries which Mr. Roberts plans to add to his complete line of fresh vegetables and present grocery stock in order to increase his volume of business and get his prices down to meet any competition.

Frances D. Haden, who is well known here thru his having been manager of the Safeway Store on West Central for more than two years, has been engaged by Mr. Roberts to take charge of his grocery department. To keep company with the "Green Frog" of Roberts fame, the entire force at this popular market is being outfitted with attractive new green smocks.

Mrs. Rose B. Hall and Mrs. James Wonder of Apt. 6, Bellevue Courts, entertained their sister, Mrs. Caroline Snowden, and J. W. Martin, both of Long Beach, last Monday.

Mrs. McKittick had luncheon with a friend in Los Angeles and later attended a matinee.

Clear Way for the Opening of Baldwin Avenue at Early Date

The first actual step toward consummating plans, started a month ago at a mass meeting held in the Holly Street School, for widening Baldwin avenue was taken last week by the Arcadia City Council.

Councilman J. M. Walshe asked for two separate petitions, calling for acquisition without possession, for widening the street, one petition seeking an eighty foot street and the other a one hundred foot street, giving the property owners an opportunity to determine whether they wish a standard width street or one of eighty feet width.

Mr. Walshe stated that since the meeting at the Holly street school house, many property owners who at that time favored only an eighty foot street are now favorable to a one hundred foot street.

W. H. Haupt, representing the Stocker estate, south of the city limits, through whose ranch the

Six Citizens Nominated As Directors

Annual Chamber Commerce Election to Occur Early In December

Work of Local Artists May Be Placed on Exhibit In City Hall

Six candidates for directors of the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce for 1930 were nominated from ballots counted at the regular meeting of that organization held Monday evening in the city hall. R. C. Copenhagen, James E. Carpenter and Joseph L. Asbury acted as tellers.

Following are the six candidates from whom three will be formally elected at the next meeting of the directors to be held on Monday, December 2:

Rudolph R. Hartman, Fred Gribenow, H. E. Allen, Jack Paschall, Tom Tyler and R. C. Copenhagen. The three chosen from these six will succeed W. E. Pratt, R. C. Copenhagen and Ray Grant whose terms expire Jan. 1, 1930.

An inquiry from William Dunckerly, secretary of the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce, concerning Sierra Madre's entry in the Rose parade, was referred to the local Chamber of Commerce committee composed of Mrs. Milton Steinberger, chairman; Dr. L. L. Krebs, Mrs. Homer Tuttle and Mrs. A. R. Hinton.

Upon recommendation of directors, Ralph W. Stewart, a director and also a steward, will request of the city council at its next regular meeting use of the council chamber for exhibits of local artists, as presented by Mrs. Harry Hawkshurst, member of Sierra Madre's art colony.

Directors present were Charles J. Klunk, president; R. C. Copenhagen, Joseph L. Asbury, Ray A. Grant, W. R. Humphries, J. E. Carpenter, Ralph W. Stewart, Mrs. W. C. Gruit, Miss Edna Green, Miss Elizabeth Steinberger and Miss Laura E. Cadmus.

Carlson Returns to Resume Painting, Decorating Work

O. W. Carlson, formerly associated with George Hagwood in the firm Hagwood & Carlson, painters and decorators, has returned from completing a big job at Atascadero Inn, and announces elsewhere in this issue that he will now carry on alone the business of the former partnership.

Mr. Carlson has already done considerable work at the Tarr residence and will start Monday to "do over" the inside of the Sierra Madre Hotel. He has established an enviable reputation as interior decorator in this community, and thruout Southern California.

"A Hymn for Peace," musical score composed by Oscar Rasbach and the words by Harold D. Carew, was sung over radio station KPSN Armistice night as an interesting number in the Armistice-day program.

Sunday evening, November 10, at Vespers in Methodist church, Pasadena, the song was sung for the first time and received favorable comment. Mr. Carew and Mr. Rasbach are well known residents of Sierra Madre.

Community Players Start Rehearsals on Tarkington Comedy

The Community Players, under the capable directorship of Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger, have started rehearsals on Booth Tarkington's "Clarence," which will be presented about the second week in December.

The following interesting cast has been chosen by Mrs. Steinberger and Mrs. H. W. Glidden: Clarence, Danson Tarr; Cora, May Young; Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. Myrtle Hill; Mr. Wheeler, Carroll King; Mr. Stem, Howard McBurney; Violet Penney, Elizabeth Glidden; Maid, Elsie Lichnog; Confidential Secretary to Mr. Wheeler, Netta Finlayson; Bob, son of Mr. Wheeler, Guy Rihard.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Ashmore attended the current play at the Carthy Circle Wednesday evening to celebrate Mrs. Ashmore's birthday.

The Sierra Madre Council long ago endorsed this proposition as an integral part of the County Planning Commission's program.

Girl Reserves Attend Pasadena Y.W.C.A. Banquet

The Pasadena Young Women's Christian Association gave its annual Girl Reserve Mother-Father-Daughter banquet Saturday evening. There were 200 present.

The Sierra Madre Girl Reserves Club was represented by Marguerite Lalone, advisor, and the following members: June Lacey, Lorraine Petzel, Alice Corum, Alice Lalone, Patricia Starke, Evelyn Olson, Cynthia Hull and Ruth Grant.

The mothers who attended from here were Mrs. Hull, Mrs. Ray A. Grant and Mrs. Starke. The outstanding speakers were Mrs. Leo McLaughlin, president of the Y.W.C.A., and Miss Jessie Gibson, dean of Pomona College.

The local Girl Reserves club is proving a very popular and worthwhile organization. Margaret Lalone, advisor, states that at a recent meeting there were twenty-nine girls who came as guests and everyone joined the club.

War Veteran Addresses Kiwanians

Local Entertainers Add Pep to Very Interesting Program

A varied program was presented to the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club at their meeting Tuesday noon. Following the preliminary community singing and announcements, President Ray Grant turned the session over to Joseph L. Asbury who acted as chairman of the day.

Joe R. Eastwood led the singing and then favored the members with two tenor solos, one of them being a selection from "The Desert Song" which was enthusiastically received.

William (Billy) Thomas from Canyon Park then gave some interesting character recitations including "The Shooting of Dan McGrew" and a female impersonation that "was a scream." Mr. Thomas has tentatively consented to appear again on the Monrovia Kiwanis Club will meet with the local organization en masse.

Mr. Eastwood then was called upon to give a delightful Spanish burlesque number, playing his own accompaniment on the guitar. Gus Rihard played the piano accompaniment to Mr. Eastwood's other numbers.

The address of the day was given by Capt. Harry E. Insley who delighted his audience with his humorous anecdotes interspersed among sound bits of philosophy and reminiscences of his own college days and his acquaintance with the nation's great men such as Grant, Roosevelt, Sherman and others. Capt. Insley is connected with the state department of vocational and professional standards. His home is in Los Angeles but he is a familiar character all over the state, being affectionately known as "The College Kid" by his fellow members in the American Legion.

President Grant asked for a 100 per cent turn out at the joint meeting with Monrovia here next Tuesday noon.

J. Hunter Clark of the Los Angeles Water and Power department will speak upon "Water Conditions in Southern California."

Community Players Start Rehearsals on Tarkington Comedy

The Community Players, under the capable directorship of Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger, have started rehearsals on Booth Tarkington's "Clarence," which will be presented about the second week in December.

The following interesting cast has been chosen by Mrs. Steinberger and Mrs. H. W. Glidden: Clarence, Danson Tarr; Cora, May Young; Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. Myrtle Hill; Mr. Wheeler, Carroll King; Mr. Stem, Howard McBurney; Violet Penney, Elizabeth Glidden; Maid, Elsie Lichnog; Confidential Secretary to Mr. Wheeler, Netta Finlayson; Bob, son of Mr. Wheeler, Guy Rihard.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Ashmore attended the current play at the Carthy Circle Wednesday evening to celebrate Mrs. Ashmore's birthday.

Fuller Wins Tennis Title From Smith

Trophies Presented to All Who Won Matches in Tournament

Homer Tuttle and R. Wood Defeat Smith and Metcalf

Seldom if ever have tennis fans of Sierra Madre been treated to such an exhibition of the net sport as was their privilege last Sunday afternoon when Emile Smith, president of the local tennis association, met Louis Fuller to decide the championship in men's singles division of the grand tournament.

Smith put up a hard battle all the way through and displayed an almost uncanny ability to return Fuller's powerful drives, but the latter was going strong and played his own game throughout with the result that he took three straight sets to win the match. The score was 6-4; 6-2; 6-3.

Immediately following this match, the trophies were presented by Joseph L. Asbury, Custodian of Properties, to the winners of the various events of the tournament as follows: Men's singles, Louis Fuller; Men's Doubles, Leslie Miller and Preston Schwartz, Jr.; Women's singles, Sarah Schwartz; Mixed doubles, Sarah Schwartz and Preston Schwartz; Junior doubles, Stuart Dittmar and Carl Young; Junior Singles, Rudy Lichnog. All except the junior doubles champions received handsome cups suitably engraved and purchased through the cooperation of Mr. Greger of Fraiberg's Jewelry Company of this city. The Junior Doubles champions were awarded tennis medals.

In an effort to keep up interest in tennis and give spectators a chance to continue to see some good matches on the city courts this winter, Emile Smith, hereby issues a challenge to Preston Schwartz or any other local player for a singles match which will practically decide the honor of second place in the tournament since Schwartz was also defeated by Fuller in the semifinals.

Arrangements are being made to bring some players from Monrovia and other neighboring cities to play exhibition matches, which will be returned at their home towns. The 1930 tournament probably will take place early next spring. Now that lights are available for night playing, interest in tennis has noticeably increased and already there is heard discussion of how various players are going to pair off for the next tournament.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Keogh of Pasadena are the parents of twin daughters, born Wednesday morning at Alhambra hospital.

ROBERTS CAMP ARRANGES SPECIAL HOLIDAY STUNTS

Roberts Camp has arranged special entertainment and amusement features for week-end guests during the Thanksgiving holiday period.

Former patrons are fast returning to this one-time popular mountain resort and Mr. Roberts, who is now in personal charge, advises all to make reservations before coming, to insure receiving accommodations.

Parent-Teacher Association to Visit Woodrow Wilson School

All aboard for Woodrow Wilson junior high! This order will be given by Mrs. Wm. Butts, the president of the Parent-Teachers Association next Tuesday afternoon. The time of embarking will be 2:30, the place, the school house kindergarten rooms on Highland; the means of transportation, private cars; the passengers—everybody who wishes to go.

It happened this way: Last Wednesday afternoon, while a group of parents were talking pro and con about schools, school houses and school children, etc., etc., someone made a suggestion that the P.T.A. should run an excursion to the Woodrow Wilson junior high, and look-see what the institution looked like.

Someone called for a vote by hands as to who had visited and who hadn't and it was a surprise. Many hadn't even driven past the building. So an excursion

League of Youth To Present Program to Children

Next Sunday evening at 5:00 all members of the Congregational League of Youth will meet at the Congregational Church. The group will then go up to the Preventorium and a short program will be presented to the children there.

After the program, all will go down into the Arroyo Seco for a wiener roast. A novel feature will be the regular Sunday League service which will be held around the fire. Lester Bodine will be in charge.

Transportation will be provided for all those who have no way of getting over. Everyone going must make reservations with Ernestine Manning.

School Bond Issue Topic At Meeting

P.T.A. Urges Better Understanding of the Local Conditions

Comprehensive highlights upon the school situation and a vivid description of the new building were given by Mrs. H. E. Allen, secretary of the school board, at an interesting meeting of the P.T.A. Wednesday afternoon in the kindergarten rooms of the school.

Although the meeting was not well attended, W. R. Humphries, in his enthusiastic supplementary remarks stated that if every mother present would work energetically, the new school bond issue would carry.

Plans were made for the mothers to go in a body to Woodrow Wilson junior high school next Tuesday at 2:30 and see the advantages that the children have there in the increased efficiency of a large school plant. "We cannot talk intelligently about something we know nothing about," Mr. Humphries stated.

Mrs. W. E. Pratt gave two delightful readings, "Penrod," and "A Boy's Stomach." An original health play was given by Mrs. Moore's class, "The Proper Things to Eat."

The executive board met before the meeting and after other business was disposed of planned a room mothers' and board potluck luncheon to be given in the art room to prepare for the publicity campaign for the bond issue for the new school. Mrs. H. C. Reavis and Mrs. F. A. Pagenkopf have charge of arrangements.

After the meeting Mrs. Will Middough and Mrs. Marvin Coats were hostesses to a prettily arranged tea in the kindergarten work room.

Elizabeth Morgridge Appears as Soloist At Country Club

Elizabeth Morgridge appeared as violin soloist at Oakmont Country Club last week. The affair was a largely attended benefit given by the Glendale Pi Beta Phi alumni association for a southern mountain school. The accompaniment was played by Elizabeth's mother, Mrs. George B. Morgridge.

Mrs. Rose Hall was guest of honor at a five hundred party Thursday of last week given by Mrs. Lash of Long Beach.

Red Cross Quota Still Incomplete

Local Workers Eager to Fill Membership Rolls at Once

Varied Activities Conducted By the National Organization

Seven hundred and fifty members must be obtained for the Red Cross by Thanksgiving. Up to now the Roll Call stands at six hundred. Red Cross workers are determined to reach the quota, and to do this the local chapter is working night and day. The best way to help is to bring to headquarters, yourself, your dollar and your interest.

The Red Cross is a national organization. Its work covers many angles of helpful activity. Even in this community daily work is being done to help those who are in want.

For instance, the first aid classes now in session. Many students are learning this important work. Statistics reveal between 23,000 and 25,000 deaths are caused annually as a result of accidents in the home. The loss is being lessened by the First Aid work of the Red Cross.

During the year, 46,898 individuals passed the tests for life saving work. In this number are listed many Sierra Madre boys and girls.

Braille work for the blind is carried on in Sierra Madre, many books being made, bound and delivered to those who have lost that priceless possession, sight.

The Junior Red Cross is an active unit in the schools here, the result of their efforts are sent to foreign countries. The work is also showing broadening and strengthening educational results. Hand-painted menus made by juniors grace the trays of many sick soldiers and sailors and much happiness is brought to those who are suffering on beds of pain.

Your membership dollar goes a long way in the Red Cross—to keep the Red Cross going takes dollars. Bring your dollars to Headquarters (Steinberger's Garage) and help the local workers to achieve their quota of 750 members.

Prominent Relatives Visitors at Home of Geo. M. McRoberts

Mr. and Mrs. McCutcheon are here for two or three weeks with their nephew, George M. McRoberts, Jr., and family. Mr. McCutcheon, who is a partner in the advertising agency of Girshing and McCutcheon of Chicago, is also a brother of John T. McCutcheon, famous cartoonist of the Chicago Tribune. The late George Barr McCutcheon, well known popular author, is another brother, and uncle of Mr. McRoberts.

Police Nab Three For Violations of City Traffic Laws

Due to the watchfulness of the Sierra Madre police force, three offenders of the law left the total sum of $28 with City Judge Wm. R. Lasater this week, and one of them has an additional $10 fine hanging over him for six months pending good behavior.

Everett Hinojos, 249 Grove St., was arrested Sunday evening and charged with driving at the rate of 45 miles per hour thru a 20-mile zone in the city. Officers Guy F. Scott and Harry Peterson saw "Pete" driving his Chevrolet roadster at what they considered an excessive rate past the city hall and they followed him to Foothill Boulevard and Rosemead before they overtook him. He appeared Monday evening before Judge Lasater and was given a fine of $25, of which amount $10 was suspended.

Harold Bassett, 18, of Pasadena paid a fine of $8 in the local court Wednesday on a charge of driving in the city with his cut-out open. Chief Gordon G. McMillan and Officer Harry Peterson made the arrest.

George A. Safren of Los Angeles failed to stop at Central Avenue when he came down Lima Street and such negligence cost him $5 when the case came to trial Thursday.

News of the Theatres

"The River" Now Being Shown at Colorado Theatre

Despite the fact that the last few years have taken Mary Duncan away from her home in Virginia in pursuit of fame, still one of the most charming things about her is her southern accent. In Frank Borzage's "The River" now playing at the Fox Colorado theatre in Pasadena, Miss Duncan gives the screen one of its finest portrayals as Rosalee, the girl of ever changing moods. It was for many months an outstanding Broadway success.

On the stage Fanchon & Marco present their "Uniforms" idea, featuring Pall Mall, Tillyou and Rogers, Military Ensemble and the Sunkist Beauties. Slim Martin and his band offer special military music and Fox Movietone News presents interesting views of world events in sight and sound.

College Comedy With Fine Cast At Fox Strand

"The Sophomore," which appears today at the Fox Strand in Pasadena, is a delightful story of college life in which Eddie Quillan as "Joe Collins," a sophomore, is a modern up-to-date young chap who does some wonderfully amusing things. There is a strong love interest in the story and the climax is quite unusual. The original title of "The Sophomore" was "Joe College," which merely means that it is a story of a typical wise-cracking college youth with such a tremendous sense of humor that it is constantly getting him into trouble. Sally O'Neill, Jeanette Loff, Stanley Smith, Russell Gleason, Sarah Padden and others are in the supporting cast.

Marion Davies in Her First Talking Film at Florence

Marion Davies, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer star whose first talking picture, "Marianne" will be seen at the Fox Florence theatre starting tomorrow, believes that daily routine sentence exercises are as necessary as limbering up exercises that dancers must go thru, now that talking pictures have the center of the stage. Miss Davies is supported by a cast of well-known players including Lawrence Gray, George Baxter, Cliff (Ukulele Ike) Edwards, Scott Kolk, Benny Rubin, Emil Chautard, Robert Edson and other well known players.

NOTICE OF COMMISSIONER'S SALE ON FORECLOSURE

In the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles.

HERMAN LEMKE, et al, Plaintiffs.

RICHARD D. JOHNSON, et al, Defendants.

Under and by virtue of an order of sale and decree of foreclosure and sale, issued out of the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Los Angeles, on the 12th day of November, 1929, in the above entitled action, wherein the above named plaintiff obtained judgment and decree of foreclosure and sale against RICHARD D. JOHNSON, et al, on the 19th day of October, 1929, for the sum of Fifty-nine Hundred Sixty-nine and 19/100 Dollars gold coin of the United States, plus interest and costs, which said judgment and decree was on the 11th day of October, 1929, entered and recorded in Judgment Book 719 at page 198 et seq. (to which judgment and decree reference is hereby made), I am commanded to sell at public auction all the following described premises, situate, lying and being in County of Los Angeles, State of California, and bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

The West half of Lot 28 of Alhambra Map No. 3, in the County of Los Angeles, State of California, as per map recorded in Book 52, Page 60 Miscellaneous Records of said County.

The North 427 feet thereof. Also except the West 202 feet of the remainder thereof. Being a parcel of land approximately 50.69 feet in width and approximately 126.54 feet in depth.

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on Tuesday, the 10th day of December, 1929, at 12 o'clock noon of that day, in front of the Court House door of the County of Los Angeles, Broadway entrance, I will, in obedience to said order of sale and decree of foreclosure and sale, sell the above described property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy said judgment with interest and costs and expenses of sale, to the highest and best bidder for cash, gold coin of the United States.

Dated November 12, 1929.

R. E. ALLEN, Commissioner appointed by said Superior Court.

WALTER J. RICHARDS, 735 Van Nuys Bldg., Los Angeles, Calif., Attorney for Plaintiff.

"Madame X" Opens Week's Film Bill At Monrovia Lyric

An unusually interesting bill is offered Sierra Madre patrons of the Monrovia Lyric Theatre the coming week, with the well known star of the dramatic stage, Ruth Chatterton, opening the week, Sunday and Monday, with "Madame X," which has established itself as one of the outstanding successes of the modern theatre.

Then Edward Everett Horton, California's own dramatic comedian appears in his greatest characterizations, "The Sap." "The Sap" is one of the funniest, fastest small town stories every screened and recorded and represents the last word in family entertainment.

And on Friday, and Saturday Lola Lane and Paul Page appear in "The Girl from Havana," much of which was filmed in Havana, on a liner at sea, and passing thru the Panama Canal.

The bill thruout the week is replete with sound cartoons, Vitaphone Acts, and features that combine to make it one of the most interesting presented at the Lyric for some time.

Cartoon Comedy Is Next Offering At the Playhouse

The next production at the Pasadena Playhouse starting with a special Thanksgiving matinee will be "Atta Boy Oscar," a cartoon comedy with settings all conceived by a cartoonist and painted likewise. Gilmore Brown feels that such a stage setting would exactly suit this comedy of the under dog and the hen-pecked husband who is hypnotized by the visiting Hindu mystic and ends up by being elected mayor.

A fine cast numbering George Reis, a great Pasadena favorite, Jeanne Wood, the Nellie of "Nellie the Beautiful Cloak Model," Lisa Thomson, Lou Wadsworth, Earl Eby and many other Playhouse favorites.

Pasadena Jaycee Tangles With Phoenix Team

ANNUAL PICTURES
All sophomores of the junior college who expect to graduate in the winter or summer are asked by the Annual officers to watch the bulletin for notices of their appointments.

PHOENIX FOOTBALL GAME
The strong junior college team of Phoenix and the strong junior college team of Pasadena are to meet in an inter-sectional game tomorrow at Horrell Field on the local junior college campus. This is going to be a game worth seeing, as Phoenix is the leading contender in Arizona while Pasadena will cop the Southern California Conference pennant if Santa Ana is defeated in her game this week. Tickets for this game must be purchased by everyone as student tickets will not admit.

BAUBLE AND BELLS
As their annual production of the year, the Bauble and Bells dramatic organization of the lower division will present "Seven Keys to Baldpate" tonight in the school auditorium. All the scenery and drapings for the play have been designed, constructed, and painted at Junior College. This is the first time this has been done at the Pasadena school. The play begins at 8 o'clock.

ENGINEERING
Well, the Engineering Club is still getting its name in the paper. This week more than 150 attended the Wednesday meeting when four reels of motion pictures depicting the oil industry were shown.

RALLY NIGHT, AND HOW!
As it's customary for us to have a poetic outburst every week, here goes. Picture (to yourselves) the field of the junior college on the night of Nov. 27. The upper division team next day leaves for Hawaii to play Kamehameha College right after its game with Long Beach. A rally is being held around a bonfire to bid adieu to the men and give them encouragement. There is no Old Clothes Day so everyone is there. Now go on with the story.

Twisting and turning in countless circles and triangles of light and shadow, a gigantic bonfire, fed by hundreds of boxes, gallons of oil, several houses and anything that will burn, leaps high into the air. Hundreds of dancing, whirling, singing students whirl madly around the fire, careless of flickering splinters of fire-laden wood. Yells burst out into the smoky air, led by those unexcelled leaders. Songs are thrown into the sky for all Pasadena to hear, accompanied by that matchless Bulldog band of 100 pieces and containing five of Sierra Madre's best at the horns and drums. Speeches from the deans, the coaches, the captain, are tossed to the group.

The team which is to play Long Beach on the next day and then leave for Hawaii, receive their letters proudly. And the rally breaks up late at night.

Greatest Aid to Gas Industry Is The Refrigerator

Nils T. Sellman, director of utilization and sales for the Consolidated Gas Company of New York, and assistant secretary of the company, was the winner of the Charles A. Munroe Award of the American Gas Association to the development of the industry during the past year.

Mr. Sellman, who is the first to receive this coveted prize made possible through the generosity of Charles A. Munroe, a past president of the Association, was selected out of a field of more than twenty cases, because he, probably more than any other individual, has made the gas refrigerator available for the gas industry. Not only has Mr. Sellman pioneered in the work of perfecting this appliance for general use, but he has been a great leader along the line of trade cooperation in its sale.

NEWS FORCE PLANS "LAY-OFF TO ENJOY ANNUAL TURKEY DAY"

The Sierra Madre News force is planning a holiday next Thursday, and consequently we are asking our friends and patrons to hand in ad and news copy, and order their Christmas cards, early in the week.

The News will not, however be delivered until Friday morning, as usual, in order that the regular weekly bargains offered by local merchants may receive proper recognition.

Fire Flames

By One of the Boys

The fire department boys are becoming quite accustomed to fire calls of late and are getting some real fire-fighting experience. Coming at different times of the day or night, calls for different "get-a-way" and by the looks of the majority of the boys as they arrived at the fire on Grove street last Thursday evening, methinks they must have all had a night out, by their make-ups. Practically all had on their Sunday shoes.

Vern Udell, Lee Hibbs, Joe Swanson, Bob Babbitt, H. A. Thew and Frank Lovell were in attendance at the weekly Red Cross first aid meeting and as the siren sounded they left the room in such haste that the lady members present were inclined to faint. On his way out, Bob Babbitt whistled so thru his teeth that Lee Hibbs couldn't see his way thru the hall. The chief met him and handed him an umbrella in time for Lee to catch the last truck out. "Shorty" Steinberger was about to close a sale of ten gallons of gasoline when the siren called. He took fourteen steps from Auburn Ave. down Central and was tramping the starter on "Old Snort" as the first aid crew boarded the emergency truck. Due to some slight defect in the starting of the big truck the emergency truck was hastened to the fire and hose therefrom attached to the fire plug.

The fire being concealed between the roof and a plastered ceiling caused some little delay in getting to the base of it and required an excess of water to overcome it. However it was not long until there were openings in the ceiling (as several of the boys can "scarfully" verify). Gordon Brooks looking over the situation was speechless as a large platter of hot plaster tapped him on his steel helmet. His nearest exit was a nearby narrow window, and as he "exited" he didn't touch either side. He was going at such a clip that if he had hit the sides the whole house would have fallen. Frank Lovell started down the stairs to procure a helmet and as he left he yelled "Look out, Jim!" to Jim Heasley just as another platter of plaster swatted James on the left side of his cranium.

All this time H. A. Thew held heroically onto a nozzle, but believe us, HE HAD A HELMET. He wasn't taking any chance on getting his hair scorched.

Bob Babbitt, who was parked at the window issued transferred orders from the chief to the fellows inside to "get the — out of there!" He continued to whistle thru his teeth.

This fire has plainly shown the necessity of an emergency truck that is capable of carrying adequate fire-fighting equipment. Large fire-trucks are not immune from "out of order" and may be in such a state at any unexpected critical time.

Many people who did not realize the situation may be ready to criticize for attaching the hose from the small truck to the plug. Lieutenant Udell was working under the impression that something serious had happened to the big truck. He should be commended rather than criticized.

Well, that "Fire's Out." Let's hope our city is not to hear of another for a long time.

Speaking of making up before the fire. We wish every one could have seen the "make-ups" after the fire. Some of the boys went home to change to dry clothes and it's hard to believe that some of the old clothes still survive. Bob Babbitt came out in one of those beautiful corset-style overcoats. Lee Hibbs found a pair of those old pointed-toe English shoes. Some of the others were even worse than those mentioned.

Assistant Chief Norris was here and about at the last fire and he saw that we had plenty of hose out and put back. He and Chief Richards could be seen together at times. Methinks they were planning to take out more hose, 'cause we sure do like to gather it up and put it back on the truck.

"Won't be long now until we trouble the folks to buy a ticket for the one big dance of the year, which is only secondary to the one big Christmas Treat it provides.

This is regular meeting night and is also the night of the S.G. V.F.A. meeting. "Stoo" bad, can't be at both, so which can go.

We missed the press last week for eligible reasons and would like to make it up, but we have already overdone our space and the

Combination Radio And Table Proves Popular Innovation

This hexagonal table of genuine walnut, with concealed speaker and 55C Atwater Kent Screen Grid Classic is an innovation in radio design that is proving a winner with the radio-buying fans who favor a radio-table combination arrangement.

A radio of this type is now on display at the Sierra Madre Hardware Co., local Atwater Kent dealers, who make the further announcement that the sensational action of Mr. Kent in cutting prices from 17 to 23 per cent created a distinct flurry in the radio industry. Dealers have responded, it is stated, with a rush of orders that has deluged the distributing offices in Los Angeles.

Mrs. R. B. Taylor and sons, Robert and Richard, of Enumclaw, Wash., have recently moved to Sierra Madre to make their home with Mrs. Taylor's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dalzell at 547 West Highland Avenue. The Dalzells moved here from Arcadia.

Entered as Second Class Matter at the Post Office at Sierra Madre, California, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

WHAT WOULD YOU TAKE?

THE writer once lived in a town in the Northwest where the streets were a disgrace and an abomination. It took long and concerted effort upon the part of the more progressive citizens to convince the large foreign-born population that paved streets were quite essential to the development of the town.

Now everybody is wondering how they ever got along without the pavement and as one man up there expressed the general sentiment: "We would not take a million dollars and have it removed if we couldn't have it put back again!" The town has forged steadily ahead with the greatest gain in history even thru the past few years which have been generally recognized as "lean."

This is the point we are driving at: Sierra Madre, in an effort to keep pace with the rest of Southern California, is setting out to build a new grammar school building that will be a source of pride to every citizen as well as of inestimable convenience to parents, pupils and teachers.

There are bound to be objections to this program. Some say it costs too much. Others say we don't need a new school because they were educated (?) in buildings far worse. Still others say that an assembly hall is not necessary for the grammar grades. And so on, far into the night, the antis keep up their babble. One lady is quoted as saying, even, that they would not put up a new school while her children were going here, and she is not in favor of paying for the conveniences for other people's children!

One of the basic principles of this government is to inspire respect and admiration for the law of our land. That is the reason we erect such splendid buildings at our state and national capitals and the same idea should prevail down to the smallest hamlet. It is said that in one of our neighboring cities, the pupils are so proud of their new school building that they have organized their own vigilance committee in order to prevent any attempt to mar or mark this handsome structure which they so heartily appreciate. They have pride in the physical appearance of the school and it is safe to say that their interest in their lessons increases proportionately.

Just because you used to drive a horse and buggy is no reason that you should expect your children to use the same antiquated and slow means of transportation. "Give the kiddies a chance" and "give them the BEST" might be added to that appropriate slogan adopted by the Citizen's Committee which is working to put across the school bond issue on December 10.

When you show your friends who are visiting you about the town, no doubt you point with pride to our new city hall and to the attractive postoffice building. What would you take for your share and have someone come and remove those two edifices and move the city's business and the postal work back to the old store rooms where they were before?

Why, that's ridiculous, you say! Well, just wait until after we get that beautiful grammar school building with its "fresh air" section for kiddies that are a little below par physically, and the auditorium where the pupils may assemble frequently to hear a good speaker or a musical program, or put on patriotic exercises and so develop that intangible but yet indispensable educational quality known as "school spirit." Just you wait until you see your children comfortably housed in a building where they may hang their wraps in a warm, dry room instead of outside in an open hall. Just wait until you see them studying their lessons in rooms of the proper size and with modern lighting arrangement so that they don't have to be fitted with glasses (as is the case with so many of Sierra Madre's pupils)—Well, just you wait until Santa Claus brings these precious kiddies of ours an honest-to-goodness, up-to-snuff school plant, and then dare somebody to make an offer large enough to induce you to even think of going back to the old horse-and-buggy educational facilities that we have here today!

Sure it will cost something! But so does an operation, and we don't question the cost when it means health, happiness and success. That is just what a new school means to our children, too. Would you be the one to deny it to them? Come on, "Give the kiddies a chance."

By W. R. LASATER

Out of seventeen posts of the 18th District, Sierra Madre was one of the six posts to get the national citation for outstanding community service. Not so bad, huh?

Pomona, Covina and LaVerne have made their membership quotas for the year and a fair margin over. What are we going to do this year?

Note, for the Legionnaire who can shoot, or thinks he can: November 24, Lamanda Park Post gives a turkey shoot at the Pasadena Police Revolver target range, New York and Santa Anita Avenue, just across the Eaton Wash, Pasadena. All are invited.

Glendora will give a Thanksgiving-day shoot at the Blackwood Ranch, East Alosta, Glendora. Prizes, 300 turkeys and 200 mallards. Breakfast served at 7:30 a. m. Shooting begins at 8 a. m. A big time for all.

Friday, the 15th, Comrades Fleming and Lasater motored to Alhambra in Vincent's Briquet Special. Nice, easy-riding car, that. We had a very entertaining two hours at the district meeting which made up for every thing else, so that's that.

Comrade Henry Olsen is not only a successful shoe merchant, but a poultry raiser as well. Henry has ten special laying hens that produce from 3 to 14 eggs per day. Now don't question the truth of this peculiar situation, but some of those eggs may be double deckers, or perhaps Vint Fleming can shed some light on the subject.

"Breezy" Bob Steinberger was in town for a few hours last Saturday afternoon. He asks to be remembered and sends greetings to the bunch.

Big Foreign sales for Sunkist this Year

—Another example of how the Exchange serves its members by expanding the market for their fruit

THE California Fruit Growers Exchange has exported 2,885 carloads of fruit... mostly oranges... this year. This huge quantity of fruit has been bought by the United Kingdom, Continental Europe, the Orient, the Antipodes, Hawaii and the Philippines.

For the last ten years, the Exchange has been building up this business for its members. Now "Sunkist" is the favorite brand of many countries besides the United States and Canada.

Never have Exchange members appreciated the value of these constantly expanding markets more than this year, when California faced the task of marketing the biggest citrus crop in history... in competition with a record-breaking Florida crop.

This tremendous marketing job has been accomplished... and with greater success than many believed possible at the start of the season. Economists are unanimous in giving credit for the success to the California Fruit Growers Exchange and its large-scale cooperative methods.

Through the introduction of the Sunkist Extractor, and more lately the Sunkist Junior Extractor, the Exchange has changed fresh Orange Juice from a rarity a few years ago, to the national drink today!

And through its twenty-two years of consumer advertising and practical sales help to retailers, the Exchange has been the big factor in raising the annual orange consumption of this country... which has been doubled and is still increasing.

Moreover, comparative figures prove that, year after year, the public and trade willingly pay for Exchange fruit a premium over competing brands. Exchange members consistently get the highest returns the market will afford.

Learn what the Exchange can definitely do for you. Talk to the manager of your nearest Exchange Association or District Exchange. Or write for further information to Growers Service Bureau, California Fruit Growers Exchange, Box 530, Station "C," Los Angeles.

WHAT THE EXCHANGE IS: The California Fruit Growers Exchange is a non-profit organization of 12,000 California citrus fruit growers, producing 75% of the California citrus crop, operated by and for them on a cooperative basis. Its object is to develop the national and international market for California Oranges, Lemons and Grapefruit and to provide a marketing organization that will sell the fruit of its members most advantageously and at least expense. Receipts from sales, less only actual cost of operation, are returned to growers. Applications are received through all the Exchange's 207 local packing associations, 23 District Exchanges, or at the central office in Los Angeles.

Fruit Growers Conduct Own 'Farm Relief'

Huge Crop Is Sold at Prices That Insure Reasonable Profit

Returns of almost $120,000,000 for a crop of oranges, lemons and grapefruit so large that it would have meant disaster for growers a few years ago, is the shining example of "farm relief" as practiced in the California citrus industry, according to the figures released in the annual report of E. G. Dezell, general manager of the California Fruit Growers Exchange.

Based on Exchange returns for the year ending October 31, the 88,010 carloads, including record shipments of all varieties, brought $118,874,102 f.o.b. California. The delivered carload value of the crop was $173,000,789, of which $54,126,687 was spent for freight and refrigeration.

The combined American supply of oranges and grapefruit from all sources was, in round numbers, 138,000 cars for the year, compared with 87,000 in 1928, 105,000 in 1927, 93,000 in 1926, and 88,000 in 1925.

The enormous supply, heavy to small sizes, together with unfavorable winter weather, proved a severe test of marketing facilities and also tested the consuming capacity of the American public, according to Mr. Dezell's report.

The previous bumper crop of five years ago, 23 per cent less than that of 1929 during winter months, and of desirable sizes, averaged below the cost of production. Continued development of demand for citrus fruits, particularly in juice form, is given much credit by Mr. Dezell for the consumption of the enormous '29 orange crop at average returns that showed some profit to the grower.

Gratifying increases in Exchange membership are taking place, according to the report. A net gain is recorded of 12,238 acres, representing about 4,000 cars of fruit. Seven organizations which had previously marketed their fruit through other channels joined the Exchange during the year and one withdrew. A new district exchange was organized to better serve the growing grapefruit production of the Imperial and Coachella Valleys and Arizona.

Patronage of Public Library Still Shows A Steady Increase

Last month's report from the Sierra Madre Public Library, as made by Miss Lulu Moore, librarian, shows that the steady gain in patronage continues. There was a total of 4,190 books borrowed during October which exceeds the number loaned the corresponding month of last year by 131.

Of this number 960 or 23 per cent were taken out by juveniles. Fifty-one per cent were adult fiction and 25 per cent were adult non-fiction. Twenty new persons registered for borrower's privileges last month.

The following new books were added to the local library during October: Adult—"Blairs Attic," Lincoln; "Bird of God," Hersch; "Farewell to Arms," Hemingway; "How To Use Your Mind," Kitson; "Nature of the Physical World," Eddington; "Kowtow," Der Ling; "Flowers of the Coast," Clements; "Beneath Tropic Seas," Beebe; "Emerson the Wisest American," Russell; "Middletown," Lynd; "Down the World's Most Dangerous River," Eddy; "Devils, Drugs and Doctors," Haggard; "Letters of Catharine Mansfield," Mansfield.

Juvenile—"Story Book Europe," Peck; "Where It All Comes True in France," Laughlin; "Chief of the Herd," Mukerji; "Cities and their Stories," Power; "Cruise of the Cachetot," Bullen; "Story of Old Ironsides," Knipe; "Our Old World Background," Beard and "Bladed Barrier," Ames.

STEER STRAIGHT

Toward Sierra Madre's Prosperity In Fair or Foul Weather!

WE'RE launched on a program of civic development that will make our town one of the country's show places. But it can't happen automatically! And it won't be smooth sailing all the way. The helm is held by capable, experienced hands. The course is clear. We've heaved anchor. We're under way. But remember the ship can't sail itself. The town can't forge ahead without your backing. Heave hard on the ropes. Pull for the old town wherever you go and whatever you do. Patronize the home-town merchants, where you know you're sure of an honest dollar's worth 100 per cent of the time. Keep your money—and the other fellows'—at home, where it will lend its force to local improvements. And, when squalls come to blow us off our course, just work and pull the harder. We'll all sail into port one day with the finest, most pleasant, most economical, and most livable town on earth.

CO-HOSTESSES ENTERTAIN FOR BRIDE-TO-BE—

Mrs. Emil Sturthal and Miss Laura E. Cadmus were co-hostesses at an affair at the latter's home, 601 Woodland Drive, Saturday night, complimenting Miss Helen Fowell, formerly of the Star-News, who leaves this week for San Nicholas, Aruba, Dutch West Indies, to become the bride of Joseph Land Findlay, in December.

A group of songs appropriate to the occasion, including "Because" and "O Promise Me," were sung by Miss Cadmus, accompanied by Alfred E. Hunt of Monrovia. William A. Thomas contributed to the evening's entertainment with recitations and comedy acts.

A treasure hunt revealed to guests, who followed lengths of ribbon, wound about the living room, a present for each and a shower of handkerchiefs and other useful gifts for the guest of honor. Supper was served after the games and entertainment.

Invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. George B. Morgridge, Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Carew, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Rasbach, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Humphries, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Isaacs, Mr. and Mrs. Joe R. Eastwood, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Asbury, Mrs. Miller, Emil Sturthal, Wm. A. Thomas, Mrs. Ella A. Cadmus, Alfred E. Hunt of Monrovia and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Farquharson of Pasadena.

ENTERTAINS CLUB COMMITTEE AND FRIENDS—

Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock Mrs. Ralph Solary entertained the membership committee of the Woman's Club, of which she is chairman, at her home, 165 East Central. After a short business meeting invited friends arrived, and the afternoon was pleasantly spent in bridge. The rooms were very attractive with chrysanthemums in autumn hues. A Thanksgiving motif was used in score cards as well as the dining room table which was decorated with a center of seasonal fruits and leaves.

Honors at bridge were given Mrs. Corita Lieben, high; Mrs. R. S. Corlett, second high, and Mrs. W. E. Pratt, low. Refreshments were served later.

Invited guests and the committee included the following: Mrs. J. H. Robertson, Mrs. H. B. Hersey, Mrs. E. D. Burbank, Mrs. R. S. Corlett, Mrs. Frank Hart, Mrs. T. J. Burns, Jr., Mrs. F. L. Lovell, Miss Reynolds, Mrs. Emil Sturthal, Mrs. M. D. Welscher, Mrs. H. C. Lieben, Mrs. W. E. Pratt, Mrs. Emile Smith, Mrs. J. L. Asbury, Mrs. Wm. Lees, Mrs. G. Lehner, Mrs. Wm. Middough, Mrs. H. H. Steinberger, Mrs. W. J. Lawless and Mrs. J. M. Campbell.

Mrs. Ralph Solary, chairman of the membership committee of the Woman's Club, appointed four captains with each a certain section of the city to work in for ladies interested in becoming new members of the club.

The dividing line is Auburn, north and south; Central, east and west. Mrs. E. D. Burbank is captain of the northeast section; Mrs. Waverly Pratt, northwest section; Mrs. Harvey Steinberger, southwest section, and Mrs. George Lehner, southeast section. Each captain is to name her own committee.

Keen interest and competition is expected for prizes are offered to the captain bringing in the most new members.

MRS. PULLING ENTERTAINS AT TEA—

Mrs. A. E. Pulling, 382 West Montecito, entertained at afternoon tea honoring Miss Florence Evans, before Miss Evans' departure for Missionary work in Shantung, China. Six friends enjoyed the afternoon.

ANDERSON-GRAY NUPTIALS—

George S. Anderson of Sierra Madre and Miss Eva Gray of Hollywood were married November 6th and will be at home to their friends at the Anderson home on Mariposa Street.

Sam Blumenthal, of Huntington Park, is at the Sierra Madre Hotel for a month.

Raymond Adelmeier expects to sail Saturday for the City of Honolulu for his home in Hawaii.

Mrs. Molly Rutherford of Detroit, Michigan, is a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Hartman.

D. W. Pote was a Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joe R. Eastwood at their home, 188 East Central.

Mrs. W. C. Poehler left Monday for a week's visit with her daughter, Mrs. C. B. Hutchins, in San Diego.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wallbrecht left Tuesday for Mexico City where they will remain indefinitely on business.

Miss Winifred Gent is recovering nicely after undergoing an operation at the Sierra Madre Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Gupton, with Mr. and Mrs. Philip Hindle of Ontario spent the Armistice week-end at Agua Caliente.

Mr. and Mrs. Thorne MacArthur left Monday to motor to La Grande, Ore., where they will remain over Christmas visiting Mrs. MacArthur's father and mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Elliott of Huntington Park, with their daughter Katherine and son Howard were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Fleming on Santa Anita Court.

CELEBRATES THIRD BIRTHDAY—

Barbara Sullivan celebrated her third birthday Monday, November 18th, with a family dinner party at the home of her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Sullivan, 185 East Central. A white cake with three tiny pink candles centered the table. Little Barbara received many gifts.

RETURNS FROM EUROPE—

Maxine Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Russell, 171 W. Live Oak, returned home Friday after a year of travel abroad.

Miss Russell visited an aunt and uncle in Scotland, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stewart, with whom she toured the countries of Europe. The last three months were spent in Scotland with her father's cousins. Miss Russell found her father's birthplace in Scotland of great interest to her.

Mr. and Mrs. Buckingham enjoyed Will Roger's current offering at the Carthy Circle theater in Hollywood last week.

Mrs. Florence Jensen is assisting in the city clerk's office during Mr. Dietz' leave of absence on account of illness.

A gorgeous cluster of persimmons on display in the News window is attracting considerable attention from passers-by. The fruit is from the famous tree owned by George P. Rikeman, of West Live Oak. There are six huge persimmons in the cluster.

The tree is well known to growers throughout the valley and every year there is a great demand for the fruit for propagation by leading nurseries. The crop this year is abundant and the quality even a little better than the average.

Under and by virtue of an order of sale and decree of foreclosure and sale, issued out of the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Los Angeles, on the 29th day of October, 1929, in the above entitled action, wherein the above named plaintiff obtained judgment and decree of foreclosure and sale against RICHARD D. JOHNSON and BETTIE E. JOHNSON, Defendants, on the 17th day of October, 1929, for the sum of Fifty-seven Hundred Fourteen and 39-100 Dollars gold coin of the United States, plus interest and costs, which said judgment and decree was on the 17th day of October, 1929, entered and recorded in Judgment Book 720 at page 1 et seq. (to which judgment and decree reference is hereby made), I am commanded to sell at public auction all the following described premises, situate, lying and being in County of Los Angeles, State of California, and bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

Lot seventeen (17), Tract eight thousand two hundred fifty-three (8253) in the County of Los Angeles, State of California, as per map recorded in Book 112, page 61 of Maps in the office of the County Recorder of said County.

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on Tuesday, the 26th day of November, 1929, at 12 o'clock noon of that day, in front of the Court House door of the County of Los Angeles, Broadway entrance, I will, in obedience to said order of sale and decree of foreclosure and sale, sell the above described property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy said judgment with interest and costs and expenses of sale, to the highest and best bidder for cash, gold coin of the United States.
Dated October 29, 1929.

R. E. ALLEN, Commissioner appointed by said Superior Court.

Orange Show To Open With Duck Dinner

Tardy Rains Delay Event, But All Ready Now for December 4

Invitations are out for the annual wild duck dinner of the National Orange Show—the dinner that formally launches the orange show on its campaign of calling attention to the great midwinter event. This year the gathering is later than usual, being set for Wednesday evening, December 4, but there was a reason.

No rains in the southland and no ducks was the reason. But lest this announcement strike dismay to the 400 or more who annually partake of this magnificent dinner, President William Starke and General Manager R. H. Mack announce that "we have the ducks." Where they got them, or expect to get them, no one knows. Perhaps they came or will come from Canada or Mexico, but the invitations do say that there will be wild ducks as usual.

The Twentieth National Orange Show will be held in San Bernardino Feb. 12-23 inclusive. Twenty years of progress in publicizing the great citrus industry by means of this great exposition, means that the twentieth anniversary show will be the most magnificent of all the splendid shows of this organization. Plans will be announced at the duck dinner.

Majestic Radio Price Drop Due To Huge Volume

Economies in manufacture due to increased production, is the cause behind the recent drop in retail prices of Majestic radios, according to word received today by the Radio Shop, Sierra Madre Majestic Radio dealers, from I. D. Watson, vice president of Ungar & Watson, Inc., Southern California and Arizona distributors for Majestic Radios.

Mr. Watson, in a letter to every Majestic dealer, explained that production had been increased to such an extent at the eight Majestic plants in Chicago that economy in manufacture resulted in every department and this saving was passed on to the purchaser in the form of a lower retail price.

"It is the policy of Majestic," Mr. Watson said, "to give the greatest possible value to Majestic purchasers. The Grigsby-Grunow Company's plan is to give every Majestic purchaser the finest radio set it is possible to build. Production at the Chicago plants, due to demand, caused production to increase from approximately 3500 sets a day to over 6000 sets. Although pro-

Three More Local Games Remain on U.S.C. Schedule

With the University of Southern California football squad home from their game with the triumphant Notre Dame squad in Chicago, fans here are looking forward to the last three games of the season for the Trojans to be played at the Coliseum against Idaho this Saturday, Washington State a week from Saturday and Carnegie Tech December 14th. Saunders is receiving congratulations from all sides for his stellar work in the great game at Chicago.

After that strenuous game the Trojans were scheduled to have an easy time the fore part of the week. Nevertheless, they are expecting plenty of competition from Idaho Saturday. But it is for the powerful Washington State and Carnegie Tech teams that the Trojans will have to be brought back to a keen edge, and Coach Jones is expected to start to work this week in planning his attack for these two contests.

Owner of Burned House Did Carry Insurance Policy

The statement was made in last week's issue of the News that it was thought no insurance was carried by Mrs. Mary Maas, owner of the property occupied by the Butler family at 145 N. Grove, which was practically destroyed by fire last week.

T. W. Neale, however, tells us that Mrs. Maas had a policy with one of the companies he represents and that the adjuster was out here Saturday to meet her and a very satisfactory settlement was reached.

County Tuberculosis And Health Ass'n to Sell Christmas Seals

Arrangements for the 1929 Christmas Seal Sale were made at a recent meeting of the Board of Directors of Los Angeles Co. Tuberculosis and Health Association held at its headquarters, 132 West First Street, Los Angeles.

Walter F. Malone, president of the Association, announced that the 1929 Christmas Seal contract had been signed with the California Tuberculosis Association which entitles the Los Angeles County Tuberculosis and Health Association to sell Christmas Seals in Sierra Madre and other county territory.

Dr. George Dock of Pasadena, recently re-elected to the Executive Committee of the California Tuberculosis Association, will serve as a director of the local association.

"The work which the Association has developed in Los Angeles County during the past seven years is concentrating on the prevention of tuberculosis in childhood and the protection of every child's right to health," states Mr. Malone. "Health authorities find that much of the infection of tuberculosis occurs in early life."

"Through the health program of nutrition clinics and health habit training conferences in health centers, summer health schools, school health programs and diagnostic clinics with x-ray for the early detection of tuberculosis among school children, much can be done to prevent tuberculosis."

"The health work that has already been done in Los Angeles County among children has attracted national attention. Dr. Anna E. Rude, director of the summer health schools, is at present in Washington, D. C., sitting in on the committee of administration of President Hoover's White House conference for child health and protection, to which she was invited by Secretary of the Interior, Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur."

TRUTH IS MIGHTY ....and Majestic Advertising Has Always Been Truthful Advertising

There is no substitute for truth. Anyone can paint a beautiful picture with words. But the real artist must toil long and arduously, until he learns with hands and brain to produce a painting which the world will look up to and exclaim: "There, indeed, is genius!"

Mother Goose tales make good reading for children, but grown-ups cannot take them seriously because they are not backed up with facts.

When Grigsby-Grunow Company advertised that it was manufacturing and selling 6,000 complete radio sets per day, it was not a word painting nor a fairy tale. It was a fact, accomplished and demonstrated before the eyes of all who came to see.

When Majestic announced that in the past five months it had sold more than ninety millions of dollars' retail worth of radio receivers, this also was a fact, easily substantiated by reports of auditors.

When Majestic announced "You cannot buy a better radio set than Majestic at any price," the manufacturing world was startled. Envious people disapproved. But hard headed business men and humble workers who own Majestic sets, and are proud of them, will tell you that this slogan also is true.

There has never been nor never will be a statement put in print by the Grigsby-Grunow Company, unless it can be substantiated by proof. Facts so demonstrable that even the lay mind may comprehend. Whether you own a Majestic or are merely thinking of owning one, you have a right to know that Majestic is still far and away the leader in sales, in popularity and in singleness of purpose—to give the greatest value that brains and unlimited production facilities may offer, for the least money.

It is high time the public was informed of the Facts.

In the language of the Better Business Bureau: "Before you invest, investigate."

Ethics of some manufacturers in making wild statements and wild claims about sales of radios are deplorable. It is up to the public—it is up to you to test their truthfulness. Just ask for the facts and figures. Don't be misled by word pictures. Before you buy a radio, assure yourself that the brand you are buying will be on the market not merely for another week or month, but that you will be proud of its purchase in years to come.

Majestic has led, is leading and will continue to lead.

Majestic hereby invites, and urges you, the public which supports it, every one and any one, to compare it. Test the tone with any other set in the world, examine the cabinet in comparison with any make of receiver ever made—look at the power pack and speaker—scrutinize the chassis. Then decide whether or not Majestic really is better.

Majestic challenges any radio manufacturer in the world to disprove the slogan, "You Cannot Buy a Better Radio Set Than Majestic at Any Price."

Mrs. Steinberger Entertains Club Drama Section

At a beautifully appointed breakfast Monday morning at 10:15 Mrs. Milton Steinberger entertained the first meeting of the Drama Section of the Woman's Club at her attractive home, 501 Mariposa.

Guests assembled in the gardens and patio. Breakfast was served to the nearly thirty guests in the living room on individual tables daintily centered with tall tapers in pastel colors with matching crystal candlesticks and table service.

Chrysanthemums were arranged artistically in vases throughout the rooms.

Altho Wm. Stack was unable to be present because of a professional call to be made up for "stills" at 10 o'clock Monday morning, where he is acting opposite Ruth Chatterton in "Sarah's Son," the meeting was an intensely interesting one.

Mrs. Steinberger introduced Rev. Arthur O. Pritchard who read an enlightening paper on the forming of the Drama League of America, headed by Dr. S. Parks Cadman of Brooklyn, New York, because a need was felt in bringing the stage back to its home in the Temple. In part, Rev. Pritchard stated that "Drama is a friend of ethics and religion, and modern drama is an offspring of the modern church started years ago when the first Miracle Plays were used to display simple Bible truths. Many religious leaders are using drama to bring out great truths. Today we live in a realistic world. Creative influences are necessary and leaders from the ranks will be discovered. The spirit of aspiration expresses itself in art as in religion and he who stands uncovered in the presence of beauty is close akin to him who prays."

Mrs. Steinberger, whose dramatic ability and personality are so well known in Sierra Madre, gave a resume of a drama meeting she attended in Hollywood, the high lights of which were that many women's organizations, including the Federation, P.T.A., P.E.O., and others are combined to secure betterment of films. Seventy-five per cent of the audiences which attend the picture shows are women. If women would not attend vulgar plays it would automatically censor them.

Mrs. Steinberger stated "Democracy has to come up to be equal; Bolshevism has to bring the people down to their ideal." "The Kingdom of God," "The Love Duel," "The Queen Was in the Parlor" were reviewed.

An interesting side light on the latter was the fact that Mrs. Steinberger was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stack at the preview of the play, met all the players in the greenroom afterwards, was asked her opinion of it, and gave them her exact impressions, which were not altogether complimentary.

At the next meeting "The Ivory Door," "The Infinite Shoe Black" and "Journey's End" will be reviewed.

Wm. Stack will come later to speak to the Drama Section.

Mrs. Mary E. Richards of 58 West Grand View, has as her house guests for the next two weeks, Mrs. Anne Casselberry of Long Beach, Alice Annet's Fawcett of Pasadena and Mrs. Flora Walling of Meadville, Pa.

Joan's Tea Room Growing Steadily In Popular Favor

The popularity of Joan's Tea Room at 91 East Laurel is growing at a rapid rate since it was formally opened just a few months ago. Last Sunday Mrs. Nordstrom, manager, reports that she served thirty dinners and was compelled to turn ten persons away because of lack of room to serve them.

This week, however, more tables and chairs are being installed and Mrs. Nordstrom hopes to be able to take care of all that come although she advises phoning for reservations. According to the announcement in an advertisement in this paper, a big Turkey dinner will be served on Thanksgiving Day for $1.25.

Canyon Park Notes

S. Petzel is engaged this week, with Leo Stork of Altadena, on an interior decorating job at Hermosa Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Hauenstein of Gardena were Sunday visitors in the interest of their property on Vista Circle Drive.

Miss Martha Reynolds returned home Monday from a 10-day visit with her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Stratman, at Hermosa Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Hard, Mrs. J. D. Hopkins and Miss Lorena Hopkins of Long Beach were visitors at Cadmus Villa on Saturday.

Miss Betty Bayne and Miss Nora Oboey of Long Beach are spending two weeks at Miss Boatright's cottage, "Cadmus Camp," on Brookside Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Harper Rogers of Long Beach are guests at Rocky Ridge cottage on Woodland Drive for three weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers plan to build on their lot here in the near future.

Robert C. Hartzell of Sawtelle is a guest at Canary Cottage on Woodland Drive for the winter. Mr. Hartzell is just out of Wadsworth hospital, where he spent the past eighteen months suffering from chronic arthritis.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred James Dewey, Jr., whose marriage was solemnized at the Congregational Church November 10, have returned from a honeymoon spent at Balboa Beach and have taken up their residence at "Fern Glen," Marlborough Terrace.

Mr. and Mrs. Holger Jensen and children spent Sunday in Alhambra where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eli Harvey. Mr. Harvey, well known sculptor of animals, has recently exhibited his works at the Ebell Club in Pasadena and is now exhibiting at the Pasadena Art Institute.

Birdie Frazier, 689 Alta Vista Drive, was surprised on Sunday by a group of young friends who arrived unexpectedly to celebrate her tenth birthday anniversary. The afternoon was spent in games of story telling and stunts, after which a cake, containing lucky omens and bearing the requisite number of candles, was served. The party attended services at the Congregational church in the evening. Guests were Billy and George Sangster of Pasadena, Dorothy Ronge, Betty and Graham Patterson, Jean Silliman, Albert Croxson, J. W. and Edward Frazier.

Three ring-tail cats owned by L. E. Baldwin, 600 Woodland Drive, are drawing many visitors to the neighborhood. The three strange little animals were caught recently in a cottage on Woodland Drive near the county flood control dam. When the real owner of the property arrived, the new tenants refused to vacate the premises. Twice they were evicted from the house, each time to return. They now have comfortable quarters of their own, with modern conveniences apparently much to their liking.

New School Is Subject At Meeting

purposes. The building would cost about $150,000. Money will be needed for the acquisition of land on Auburn Avenue, the building of retaining walls, the grading of playgrounds, etc. All money will be handled by the county council's office, the plans having to be passed on by the state board of education at Sacramento. He assured his hearers that the money would be well spent and it was necessary that the work be started at once so that advantage can be taken of the labor and material market at this time and the school ready for occupancy for the next school year.

The only charge to the taxpayers for the first three years will be one of interest, the rate being five per cent. The fourth year a retirement of $8000 would be started, cutting down the interest charge yearly until the end of the twenty-eight-year period. The cost after the third year would be $3.91 per thousand assessed valuation, while the expense would be but 22.1 cents per hundred, or $2.21 per annum on property, assessed on $1000 valuation for the first three years. The Sierra Madre school district, he explained, covered the Hastings ranch and much property at the Villa, all of this property contributing to the payment of the bonds. As values increase, new homes are built and more people settle here, he said, more people would pay taxes, cutting down the tax rate in proportion to the increased valuation.

Mr. Smith has been on the school board for five years and has carefully studied the many problems that come to the attention of the trustees as regards the management and progress of our local school.

Mrs. Allen, talking as a parent and trustee, stressed the slogan, "Give the kiddies a chance." She told of the study made, the conferences held, with educational authorities in many parts of the state, of the time taken up with the firm of architects, the visits made to schools in other cities, and proved to her listeners the need of a new and properly designed school for the needs of Sierra Madre children.

Mrs. Ruth Klemme Bovard, the third trustee, told in a few words of her study of the question.

Mr. Marsh's remarks covered more the subject of the advantages accruing to the community, stating that children were the most valuable asset a city could have and that it behooved this community to have the best in the school line, as every city is a direct competitor to us and that the city offering the best in educational service would make the biggest and best growth.

Mr. Powell, whose clever design for the proposed new building was exhibited at the meeting, (and is now on exhibition at the News office and the Sierra Madre Garage) explained the building in detail and spoke of the improved lighting and housing conditions the new building would have. Provision would be made for the increased growth of the city and its school population, the five units in the plan being designed to accommodate 600 pupils.

Mrs. Florence E. Eakman, writer of children's stories and for many years a worker in school life, stressed the need of an assembly room, telling the use for such a place.

W. R. Humphries spoke on the proposed bond issue from the standpoint of figures, telling of the valuation of the city at this time and stating that at the present growth of the city that the estimate for 1933 would be $6,751,199, and a further estimate for 1939 would be $11,322,437.

A very valuable chart, prepared by H. Clay Reavis was shown. During the meeting the Sierra Madre Quartet, that bunch of boys who are always on the job, pleased the audience with selections and also led the singing of the national anthem.

Many requests have been made by citizens who were unable to attend this meeting that another meeting be held sometime before the election. These requests will be granted and another planned at which time photos of interest will be shown on the screen—photos dating back to 30 years ago, together with slides of the floor plans of the proposed new building.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TO GIVE PLAY

"Columbia Explains Thanksgiving" is the title of a little play to be given Sunday morning in the junior department of the Congregational Sunday School. The girls taking part are members of Miss Fitch's class and include Joan Gruit, Amalia Becerra, Carmen Ibarra, Alice James, Helen Barrett, Toshi Horimoto, Jean Silliman, Twila Stinman and Ethel Lauber.

A thank offering will be taken to aid the work of Miss Violet Makanya, a native African mission teacher in whom the children have taken a great interest. The session opens at 9:30. Parents are especially invited for this occasion.

MRS. DENNISON ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Stella Dennison entertained at Sunday evening dinner, honoring the birthday of her friend, Mrs. W. J. Cornes of Monrovia. Those present included the honor guest and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Morgan of Cleveland, Ohio, who are here to spend the winter; Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. George Norris, W. J. Corner and Mrs. A. N. Dingam.

Thursday and Friday of last week, Dr. Marie A. Everett visited with a friend, Mrs. Elizabeth Pile, of Los Angeles, formerly of Milwaukee. Mrs. Pile recently buried her husband, Mr. Wm. Pile, who died suddenly from a heart attack. Mr. Pile was a "native son." Dr. Everett also spent the week end with her niece, Mrs. Louis Speck of View Park, L. A.

Mr. and Mrs. William Harris of Buffalo, N. Y., have taken the Eustis house at 235 South Baldwin. Mr. Harris is a retired railroad man, having been engaged in the general traffic offices of the Pennsylvania Railway.

Mrs. Frank Hart entertained the Dickens Club Thursday of this week at Hartwood with a luncheon of twenty-three plates. Miss Eleanor Miller of the Pasadena Dickens Club was guest of honor.

Critic Lauds Thayer As Fine Artist

Speaks in Glowing Terms of Work of Sierra Madre Singer

That Donald Thayer quite captivated his New York audience on the occasion of his recent recital in the nation's metropolis, is seen from the numerous fine criticisms of his work. A criticism of more than usual interest to Mr. Thayer's many friends in Sierra Madre appeared in the Musical Courier, New York, of the issue of November 2, as follows:

"Donald Thayer, who appeared in Town Hall Sunday afternoon, easily pleased a good sized audience with the beauty of his singing and interpretative gifts.

"Mr. Thayer has been singing abroad and thruout this country, and judging from the impression he made upon this audience he should be heard in New York more frequently. He sings intelligently and reveals excellent schooling. His top register is free and resonant and there is a decided richness in the middle and lower tones. An eloquence of style and clear diction also marked his singing.

"The opening group by Handel, Scambati and Mozart was given with the tonal beauty and elegance of style, while three 'first time' songs by Erich Wolf, 'Sommernacht,' 'Alle Dinge Haben Sprache' and 'Es Ist Alles Wie Ein Wunderbarer Garten,' proved a genuine addition to the German song literature. These, exquisitely rendered, showed a skill for contrasting moods. The Masked Ball aria, Eri Tu, came next and then a group of English songs.

"Mr. Thayer is an excellent artist; one who should be an addition to any concert course. A fine personality and stage presence were also noted. His accompanist was Rudolph Gruen."

FIRST MEETING OF LEGION AUXILIARY

The first meeting of the year was held at the city hall November 14 with newly elected officers in charge. Plans were made for the work done among the ex-service men here and in the hospitals. A number of new ex-service men and families were reported having been called upon. A course in home nursing will be held each meeting night with lectures given by physicians and nurses. This is free to all members of the Sierra Madre Unit. Those not members may receive the instructions for a nominal fee. A card party will be given next Tuesday night at the city hall to obtain funds to carry on Christmas work. The public is urged to attend.
